Dear Parent or Guardian,

Your son or daughter is in the midst of an in-depth study of Holocaust literature as a part of our Social Justice unit in English class. We have already read Elie Wiesel's Night, a text that describes his experiences in concentration camps.

More importantly, we are learning about how one person can make a difference. As a part of this effort, we are showing Schindler's List: this film follows Oskar Schindler and his work to save the lives of more than 1,100 Jewish people during the Holocaust. In my experience as an educator, this story makes a positive impact on students.

It is, however, rated R: students need to have signed parental permission forms before they will be allowed to watch. Students should return it to me by Friday, Dec 6. Please feel free to contact me with any questions or concerns you may have (ekamrass@newpaltz.k12.ny).

Sincerely,

Eileen Kamrass
