

February 3, 2020
For Immediate Release

---

Five RPS students accepted to SEMSBA Music Festival

On Saturday, February 1st, Randolph High School and Randolph Community Middle School music students traveled to Abington, MA to audition for the 2020 Junior and Senior SEMSBA Music Festivals. Students performed scales, solo literature and sight-reading passages for adjudicators. The RPS music department is proud to announce that five students were selected to participate in the 2020 Festival! The accepted students will work with talented conductors and perform with musicians from across southeastern Massachusetts at the SEMSBA Music Festivals, to be held in early April and early May.

Accepted to the 2020 Junior SEMSBA Chorus

Caitlin Sabijon, soprano
Jessie Stephens, alto

Accepted to the 2020 Junior SEMSBA Band

McKenshel Cameau, trumpet
Lillianna Doan, flute
Khanh Nguyen, bass clarinet

Congratulations to all of the students involved for their continued hard work and success!

---

For more information, please contact:

Mrs. Tracy Nadolny Duguay
Department Chair, K-12
Randolph Public School Music Department
duguayt@randolph.k12.ma.us