I realize that you likely have many questions. CollegeBoard has announced that they will provide more detailed information later in March. Please understand that with nearly 600 AP test-takers, I cannot respond to individual questions at this time. While we wait for more news from CollegeBoard, you are welcome to fill out The 2021 AP FAQ form if you have a question. A FAQ will be posted on the guidance website and will be updated with questions and answers as information becomes available. The form can only be completed by students using their mtsd account.
