

Summit Public Schools
Summit, New Jersey
Grade Level: 3/ Content Area: Spanish

Overview:

The language objectives in this course focus on providing students with opportunities to both extend and incorporate their prior knowledge of thematic vocabulary in the target language. Students will successfully communicate personal information about themselves, while making connections with other people in their classroom, community, and the world. Students will engage in meaningful, authentic and real-world applications of language as they continue to strengthen and develop novice-mid proficiency across all three communicative skills: interpretive, interpersonal, and presentational.

Unit 1: Como soy...

Big Ideas: Course Objectives/ Content Statement(s)

- Greetings and introductions are an integral part of daily language and are essential for communicating in a foreign language. Greetings and introductions open the door into other cultures and are the first steps in creating meaningful connections with global communities.
- Learning to identify colors in a foreign language as well as our likes and dislikes is a gateway to understanding and communicating. We use colors to describe the world around us.
- Sharing feelings will promote self awareness and connect with others.
- Discussing the make-up of our family is a way to communicate about our personal life and make connections between one another.
- Discussing likes and dislikes is a way to share and interact with others.

Essential Questions

What provocative questions will foster inquiry, understanding, and transfer of learning?

- How can I introduce myself and others in Spanish?
- How can I identify colors in Spanish?
- How are some color words said differently in some Spanish speaking countries?
- How does my family compare to the families of others?
- How can sharing information about my family help me connect with others?
- How do my general preferences compare to my peers?
- How am I unique compared to my peers?

Enduring Understandings

What will students understand about the big ideas?

Students will understand that:

- It is possible to communicate in the target language
- Spanish speaking people have similar ways of greeting and introducing themselves.
- They can use different greetings such as buenos días, buenas tardes and buenas noches, depending on the time of day.
- They can use different farewells such as adiós - hasta luego, hasta mañana, hasta pronto, nos vemos.
- Color words vary sometimes depending on the Spanish speaking country (ex. marrón in Argentina/café en Colombia).
- Cognates play an important role when learning calendar vocabulary and a foreign language.
- They can express their name, favorite color, feelings and use greetings appropriately in the first and third person person ex: Me llamo, Se llama, Estoy, Es, Mi color, Su color
- Color words vary sometimes depending on the Spanish speaking country (ex. marrón in Argentina/café in Colombia).
- We all share similarities in respect to our families and we can identify differences
