

WHAT IS APERTURE?

Aperture refers to an opening in the lens that controls the amount of light let in and the depth of field. The larger your aperture (the lower the f-stop number), the less depth of field you have.

Small Aperture

Large Aperture

