

Just Do Them

The following rules and consequences were created, discussed, and agreed upon by the students in Mrs. Rorrer's fourth and sixth period Language Arts class for the school year 2008-2009.

Rules

1. Raise your hand, don't interrupt, and wait until you are called on to speak.
2. Be prepared—be on time and have your materials for class.
3. Treat students, teacher, and peers with respect, mindful of their age and how one would expect to be treated.
4. Do your own work.
5. Be responsible for your belongings and your actions—come to class prepared and ready to participate.
6. Always give 100% of what you have in class.
7. Work neatly and clean up after yourself. Take pride in your classroom and respect other people's belongings.
8. Follow the school dress code.
9. Have a positive attitude.
10. Use appropriate language in class.
11. Speak not the Pee Wee word of the day.

Consequences

1. warning
2. conference with the teacher/behavior slip (in lieu of being sent to the hall)
3. call home
4. detention
5. office referral w/suggestion for suspension
6. immediate military enrollment per Mrs. R's discretion

In signing this document, I hereby agree to its validity and am pledging, upon signing, to follow the rules and consequences set forth within it.
