

Elementary Classroom Teacher-Long Term Substitute
2024-25 School Year
Newmarket School District

Are you interested in joining a high-functioning and collaborative team that helps our students realize Newmarket's "Vision of a Graduate?" The Newmarket School District seeks motivated and engaged individuals to join our team at Newmarket Elementary School. Interested candidates should have a background in elementary education, hold an Elementary Teacher Certification and meet the minimum requirements per the NH Department of Education requirements, as well as other essential elements described in the job description.

Visit the Newmarket School District Website for further information on the district, the (Insert Location), to view a job description, and to complete an online application.

Starting Salary Range: $244.00 per day

Anticipated Start Date: February 10, 2025-Last Day of School Year

The position will remain open until filled; however, a preliminary review of applications will begin on January 16, 2025.

The Newmarket School District is located in the seacoast region of New Hampshire, with easy access to Portsmouth, the University of New Hampshire, and the Boston metropolitan area. We enjoy strong support from our community and recently completed renovations and building additions to the elementary and junior-senior high schools. The community has high expectations for academic and social development achievement.

An Equal Employment Opportunity Employer