

A Note from the Principal

I must begin with saying, how proud I am of the students and parents that picked up resources and logged into Google Classrooms, to complete assignments. I want each of you to keep the momentum strong this summer. Those of you that signed up for the online summer program will be challenged and pushed to stretch your understanding in ELA and Math. If you missed this opportunity, I challenge you to visit the Richland Resource Hub and continue to grow as well.

Reminders: Parents and students are responsible for chrome books that were checked out. Chrome books should have been turned in May 20-22, 2020. If the chrome books were not returned, parents will receive a bill. Also, the 6th Six Weeks report cards were mailed on Friday, May 22nd. Lastly, continue to check the Rayville Junior High School webpage for updates and messages from the teachers and staff. Have a blessed and safe summer!

GREAT EXPECTATIONS!

~N.Ranel, Principal

Please remember that you are capable of accomplishing all of your goals, and though you have left my classroom, I will always have high expectations for you as you continue on in life! Each of you is meant for great things! Have a wonderful summer!
Love, Mrs. Thornhill.

- READ DELIBERATELY- Choose your books carefully.
- READ INTERACTIVELY- Work hard at understanding the book. Make connections with the characters and their challenges. Read with highlighter and pencil in hand.
- READ WITH DISCERNMENT- Books have incredible power to do good, to challenge and strengthen your character as an individual, and they also have the power to help you to learn more.
