

What is my child learning in 5th Grade?

Stations:

- *Working cooperatively & independently practicing & reviewing fundamental math and literacy skills that spiral throughout the year to gain understanding and mastery of grade level activities.

- *Learning various reading strategies to become a fluent reader, build comprehension, and expand their vocabulary.

- *Practicing basic technological skills to enhance reading, math, and writing skills

- *Setting and achieving reading goals with AR

Math:

- *Number sense- Reviewing the operations. Adding, comparing, subtracting, dividing, and multiplying fractions and decimals.

- *Geometry- 2D & 3D shapes, manipulating area, surface area, and perimeter.

- Classifying and measuring angles.

- *Data Analysis- Finding central tendencies (mean, median, mode, range, and outliers), analyzing, and displaying data

- *Algebra- Following the order of operations to solve equations and expressions.

Language Arts:

- *Working on the writing process

- *Improve handwriting

- *Learn various reading strategies to become a fluent reader, build comprehension, and explain their vocabulary

- *Compare & contrast stories, genres, settings, plots, and characters.

- *Poetry and figurative language-metaphors, idioms, analogies, similes, and more!

Science:

- *Life science

- *Earth science

- *Physical science

- *Renewable/Non-renewable energy

- *Human impact

Social Studies:

- *History- America's history up until 1800. Peoples, cultures, and change over time
- *Geography- Human interaction, places and regions, and geospatial skills
- *Citizenship and government- Presidential election, 3 branches of government, and their rights and responsibilities
- *Economics- Personal finance and its impact on history

Projects:

- *Biography
- *Autobiography
- *Gameboards
- *Various art and writing skills

Here is the link if you're interested in looking at the Minnesota State Standards for each grade level and Class <https://education.mn.gov/MDE/dse/stds/>

Other websites we frequently use in our classroom:

Typing.com
Thinkcentral.com
Prodigygame.com
Reflex.com
Spellingcity.com

Thank you!

Ms. Marinda Balcer

marinda@clearbrook-gonvick.k12.mn.us

“Children are one third of our population and all of our future.”