(Editing for conventions should demonstrate command of Language standards 1–3 up to and including grade 8.)
Differentiation/Assessment:	Classroom Management and Environment:	What will the students be doing?
Students who needed the extra help received guided notes, extra individual practice, and shortened tests.	The classroom is set up in a “meeting” like setting. There are four table groups so students can collaborate. Overall the environment is structured and has rules and procedures in place.	To practice the various grammar skills students completed: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Do Now/Bell Ringer Exercises• Assignments which corresponded with the lesson.• Assessments• Writing Practices

Students needed to know what a noun was and its function in a sentence.	Pronoun Antecedent Verb Transitive Intransitive Active	Grammar test where students identified the various parts of speech. A written fictional story where students needed to

	Passive Adjective Adverb	use 10 adjectives and adverbs. During peer editing, other students were to highlight and underline these parts of speech.
Reflection: Overall, this unit was effective to start the year. Students learned quickly what each basic part of speech was and we were able to quickly move through the unit.	Essential Questions: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What is a pronoun? • What is an antecedent? • How do we use pronouns and antecedents to create clear writing? • What is a verb? • What is a transitive verb? • What is an intransitive verb? • What is active and passive voice? • Why is it important to write in active voice? • What is an adjective? • What is an adverb? • How can we use adjectives and adverbs to strengthen our writing?
Relevance	In order to write clear, coherent work, students need to have an understanding of the basic parts of speech and how to use them. I also did the active passive voice as a mini lesson to help students write in a clear way.

Unit: Conjunctions		Time: September-October 2019
Standards Taught

Students needed to know what a complete sentence is.	Coordinating Conjunction Correlating Conjunction Subordinating Conjunction Prepositional Phrase Object of a Preposition	Grammar test where students identified the conjunctions and what they were conjoining. A written personal narrative where students needed to effectively use all three types of conjunctions 2 times. Students during the peer editing process found these conjunctions and highlighted or underlined them.
Reflection: Overall, this unit was effective in helping my students become more fluent writers. Before they were tending to write choppier sentences.	Essential Questions: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• What is a conjunction?• What is a prepositional phrase and how is it used in sentence to create clarity?• What are the three different types of conjunctions?• How do we punctuate a subordinating conjunction?• Why are conjunctions helpful in writing?
Relevance: Students need to be able to connect ideas to make their writing less choppy. In addition, it shows them how to use a comma in a compound sentence.

Unit: Basic Sentence Parts	Time: October 2019-November 2019
Standards Taught
