

Date: _____

Instructor: Sara Willis

Student Name/ID#: _____

Total Score:

/ 100

A&M CONSOLIDATED HIGH SCHOOL - MEDICAL TERMINOLOGY B: SECTION 1-1

March 23-27-Medical Terminology "General Medicine-Abdominal Pain"

INSTRUCTIONS: Read through the attached medical transcription document “General Medicine-Abdominal Pain”. Using what you have learned already and the resources in the Schoology course, (the textbook chapters, etc.) interpret the transcription report and answer the questions in the assignment also titled “General Medicine-Abdominal Pain”.

QUESTION 1

/1

The patient presented with pain in her abdomen. How long has she been experiencing these symptoms, and what does persistent mean?

---

---

---

---

---

QUESTION 2

/1

The patient underwent a CT scan 3-4 days prior to being seen at this visit. Highlight the part of her body that was scanned. (You can change the color of the highlight.)

QUESTION 3

/1

Why do you think it is important information that she underwent a colonoscopy 5 years ago?

QUESTION 4

/1

How long ago was her last bowel movement and was it normal?

---

---

---

---

---

QUESTION 5

/1

What is the only other condition listed in her medical history? Describe in your own words what it is.

---

---

---

---

---

QUESTION 6

/1

What 3 body parts has she had removed in her lifetime?

---

---

---

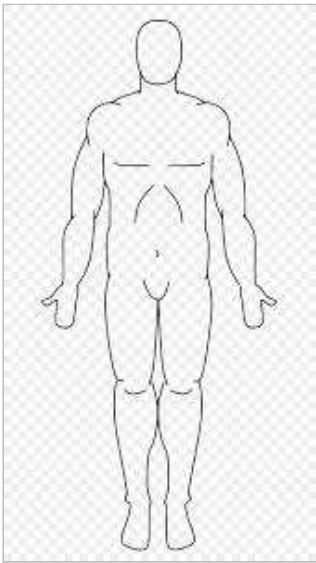

---

---

QUESTION 7

/1

The patient exhibited tenderness during the physical examination. Highlight the part of her body that was tender to physical palpation. (You can change the color of the highlight.)

QUESTION 8

/1

Which of the patient's labwork results was abnormal?

- A

☐

BUN
- B

☐

hemoglobin
- C

☐

alkaline phosphatase
- D

☐

electrolytes
- E

☐

white blood cell count
- F

☐

platelet count
- G

☐

liver function tests
- H

☐

glucose
- I

☐

creatinine

QUESTION 9

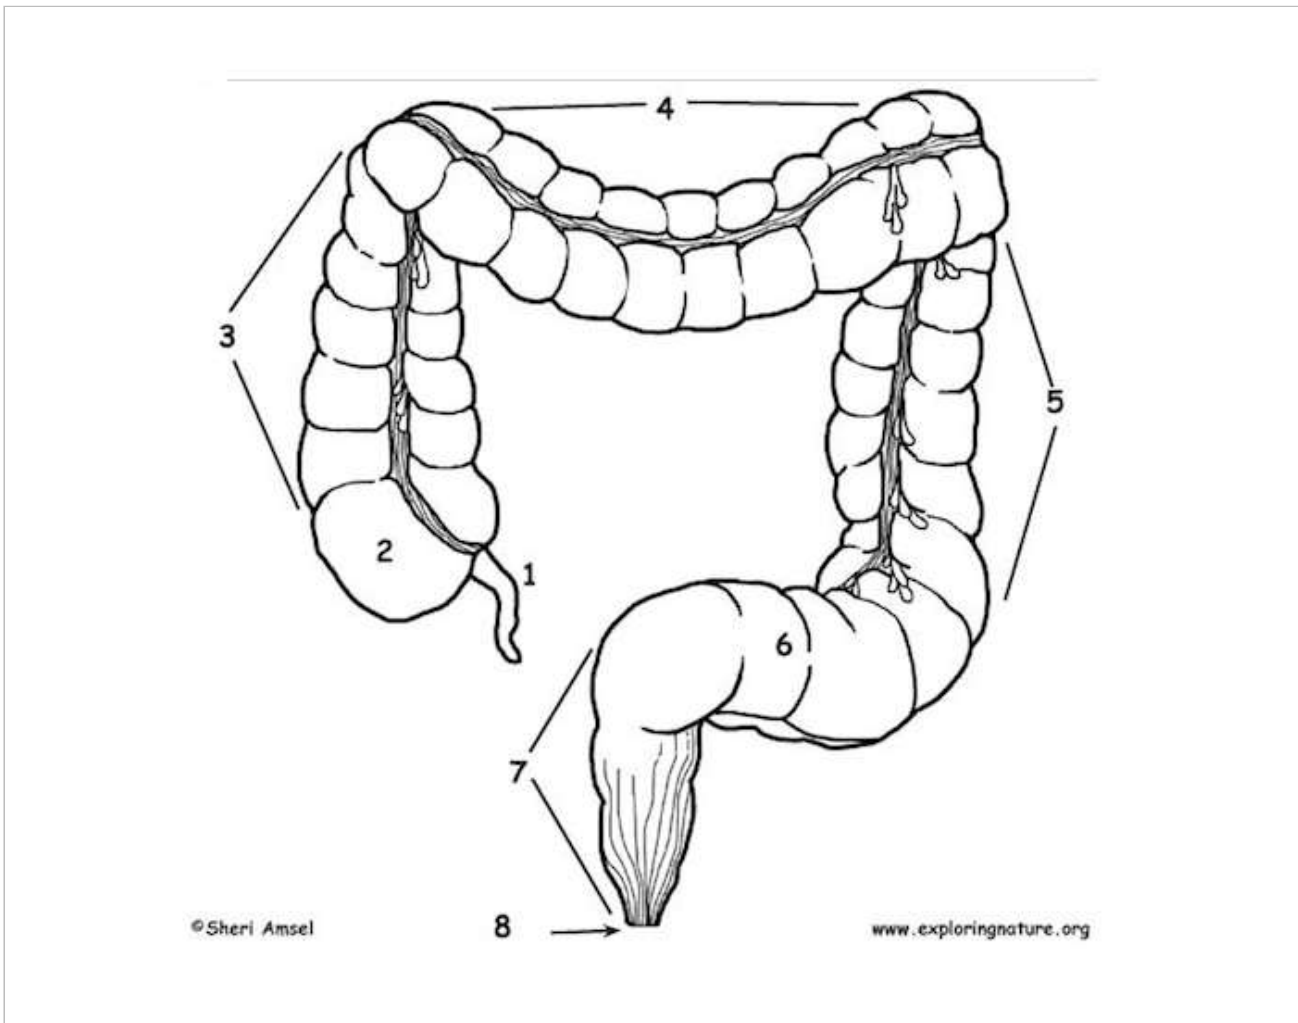

/1

What is the working diagnosis for this patient?

QUESTION 10

/1

Highlight the part of the colon where the presumed problem is located. (You can change the color of the highlight.)

QUESTION 11

/1

What are the 4 things that are recommended for the patient in the Impression and Plan?

---

---

---

---

---

