About ACACIA Fraternity:

ACACIA is a Greek Social Fraternity. It has the distinction of being the only National Fraternity to choose an entire Greek word as its name rather than Greek letters. Acacians strive to achieve excellence and balance in college and throughout their lifetimes. ACACIA Fraternity was founded by Masons in 1904 at the University of Michigan, and today is an international fraternity with chapters in Canada and across the United States.

In August, 2020 the members of Acacia Fraternity moved into their brand new chapter house. At more than 18,000 square feet, this facility provides a home-like atmosphere for 42 men. It definitely does not look like your standard dormitory! Pictures of the newest chapter house in the Iowa State Greek Community are available at our website isuacacia.org. You will be very impressed with what you see!

Our fraternity provides you with amenities that simply cannot be surpassed by any other fraternity. Our meal plan includes 15 meals per week, with milk, salads, breads and snacks available 24/7. A recreation room includes a pool table, ping pong table, Foosball table, game table and shuffleboard table. A theater with an 85-inch TV and lounge seating is also available.

On the second and third floors, a gathering space with a 65-inch TV and fully supplied kitchenette are available 24/7. Each suite in the chapter house are provided with a bed, dresser, desk and restroom facilities. No cold air dorms or “group” bathrooms. You only need to provide your own chair to use in your room at your desk.

More than ample study spaces are provided in the chapter house, both in your room and throughout the house. Some 38.5% of the chapter house is dedicated to study rooms and libraries, ensuring that you do not have to walk to a building on campus to find a quiet place to study. The alumni board will pay for tutors if you need them, and we provide one of the highest academic scholarship programs in the Iowa State Greek Community. If you earn good grades, you will be amply rewarded!

When you apply for this scholarship, full information on the chapter house will be sent to you so that you can see for yourself what an outstanding living environment we provide. You can schedule a tour of our facility at a time that works for you. Don't wait, apply now and see where you could be living for the next four years at Iowa State!
