

ACCEPTABLE USE PRACTICES FOR TECHNOLOGY RESOURCES

CARMAN-AINSWORTH COMMUNITY SCHOOLS

Acceptable use means that as a student in the Carman-Ainsworth Community Schools, you will promise to use the computer, Internet and technology resources with respect.

Acceptable use means you will promise to abide by the school and district rules as outlined here and as will be taught to you by your teachers and media specialists.

1. I will use the computer (and all accessories), printer and Internet in an appropriate manner and only for educational purposes.
 - I will not enter inappropriate or hurtful language into the computer.
 - I will be polite and treat others with respect when using the computer, Internet and technology resources.
2. I will use only my work, and not the work of others.
 - I will respect copyright laws.
 - I will tell where I found my information.
3. I will practice basic rules of safety when using the Internet.
 - I will not enter any personal information such as names, addresses, and/or photos with names.
 - I will not share any passwords.

STUDENT'S AGREEMENT

I have read the information that is written above. If I did not understand the meaning of part of it, I asked an adult to explain it to me. I agree to follow these rules at all times when I use the Internet and technology resources at school. I understand that this agreement will last for my entire educational career at the high school level at Carman-Ainsworth Schools.

PARENT OR GUARDIAN

I have read the Acceptable Use Practices for Technology Resources and have discussed it with my child. My child agrees to abide by the Carman-Ainsworth Community Schools' Acceptable Use Practices in using the computer, Internet and technology resources. If my student does not follow these guidelines or utilizes the computers, Internet or technology resources inappropriately, I understand that my child will be disciplined according to the general disciplinary practices of the district.
