

Advanced English 11: Blizzard Bag #2

As a child, a snow day is a wonderful event. Think back to when you were younger and played in the snow with your siblings or friends. Perhaps you still do! Do you have an amusing anecdote to tell? In a short narrative, describe the activities you enjoy (or did enjoy) in the snow. If possible, ask your parents or grandparents about their snow activities in younger days. How are they similar, or how are they different? As you've gotten older, how have they changed?

Requirements:

This should be between 180-225 words.

Word process if possible. If you can word-process but not print, email it to me or bring it in on a flash drive.

Remember to use "Dad" or "Grandma" or "Jim" or "Jill" instead of my dad or our grandmother or my friend. Describe details-use imagery!

Pay attention to your grammar, spelling and punctuation. An introductory subordinate clause is followed by a comma; a subordinate clause at the end of a sentence does not need a comma.

Proofread your work!
