

Carmel Education Foundation Lisa and Nicholas Allemenos Scholarship Recipients

These scholarships are given in memory of Lisa and Nicholas Allemenos who passed away on March 17, 1994. Lisa was a member of the orchestra and loved playing the violin. She had competed in the state music contest shortly before her death. Nick was actively involved in journalism programs at Carmel High School and attended journalism camps to further his interest. This scholarship was established to provide tuition, fees, and transportation to Carmel Middle School students participating in band or orchestra classes or Carmel High School students attending journalism camps.
