

Students who miss their live class meeting, will not be counted absent if, within 24 hours, they watch the class recording and demonstrate their attendance using the method designated by their teacher. Students are still responsible for completing any assignments from that day.

Teacher	Subject	Alternative Attendance
Allan	Language Arts	Students either email Mrs. Allan or leave a comment on the video.
B. Davis	Social Studies	Watch the video and then email Mr. Davis to confirm they watched it.
French	Social Studies and Math	Watch the video and then email Mrs. French to confirm you watched it.
Hohnstein	Language Arts	Watch the video and then email Mrs. Hohnstein to confirm they watched it.
Humphrey	Math	Watch the video, email Mr. Humphrey to confirm the student watched it, and the student will need to answer some questions about the video
Larson	Language Arts	Answer the attendance question in Google Classroom.
McBride	P.E.	Answer the attendance question for that day within 24 hours
Newman	P.E.	Answer the attendance question for the day within 24 hours
Pizzola	6 th Grade Math, 6 th Grade Science	Watch the video and email Mr. Sisko to confirm they watched it.
Stoe	Science	Watch the video and email Mr. Stoe to confirm that they watched it.
W. Davis	Science	Watch the video and either email Ms. Davis they watched it or leave a comment on the video.
Light	7 th Grade Math	Watch the video and complete Attendance Assignment in Google Classroom
Wondra	Social Studies	Watch the video and either email Ms. Davis they watched it or leave a comment on the video.