

MISS COCO IS LOCO

BY DAN GUNTMAN

SUMMARY

it's Hard To Write Poems

While Your Chewing Gum.

That was his first poem. He thought it was dumb. But he realized the people who weren't doing poems they can buy poems from Arlo for their lunch money and when Arlo did that they were starving in lunch. Sorry, I can't tell you the whole story so figure out the whole story when you read Miss. Coco Is Loco!

SETTING

The setting is in Arlo school. His school was in poetry month, but Arlo hated poetry month. So Arlo had to do it so he did, but he thought it was dumb, but all the girls in the school loved poetry. So the principle came in Arlo room and said” how about we make thousand poems.” So all the girls said yeah and all the boys said no, but he wanted to do it anyway .When the principle came out the room the boys started to want to play a let’s not make poems then the teacher said if everyday we can make as many poems as we can. Then Arlo said you have ruined my life.

GENRE

The Genre of this story is that it has incredible art because the children draw pictures that go with the poem and they color the picture beautiful as the lovely roses.

Sometimes they do not write words they just draw and you will be able to know what the poem is about or going to be about.

RECOMMENDATION

The story Miss Coco Is Loco is cool. You should read it because it takes place in a school ,its funny, and teachers are crazy! Its about this boy named Arlo who hates poetry and he is in the G. and T. program. Its poetry month and Arlo says “when can we have sit back and relax month?” And then Miss Coco said “That’s it we should all make a poem about sit back and relax month. The next day Arlo didn’t make a poem about sit back and relax month he wrote about it would be hard if you make poems while your chewing gum. It goes like this
