

Animal Jam VS Club Penguin

Have you ever heard of Animal Jam and Club Penguin? They are both computer games. Club Penguin is kind of boring without membership. Animal Jam rocks though if you have a membership or not. In the next paragraph you will find out how these two games are different.

In Animal Jam, you can get different animals, but in Club Penguin you can only get penguins. For Animal Jam, you can get dens, but in Club Penguin you can only get different kinds of igloos. On Club Penguin, you can say whatever you want in chat. However, in Animal Jam you have to get free chat to say certain things. Here are some specific things: numbers, XD, curse words, and things like that. Animal Jam is run by National Geographic Kids. Club Penguin is run by the Walt Disney Company. For Animal Jam, you can't play on tablets, or phones. Only PCs and laptops. On, Club Penguin you can play on phones, tablets, PCs, and laptops.

Now you can read some similarities. One is you can get membership on both. You can get animals in both games. You can report people on both, for bullying, scamming, and personal info stealers. Lastly, they're both online.

Hope you liked reading about Animal Jam and Club Penguin. As, you can see they are totally different games in different ways.
