For the girls, they were led by Anna Duckwall in 22nd (23:59), Shelby Hofmann 35th (25:19), Sydney Lowdermilk 36th (25:24), Tessa Stagg 42nd (25:54), Millie Withers 44th (25:57), Lydia Grant 45th (26:27), Jenna Hofmann 48th (26:55), Olivia Shidler 51st (27:35).

Once again, Clay City High School was represented very well with the 70 students which participated in the annual Cob & Cog event. In the past, the traveling trophy was based on the winner of the Quiz Bowl event. This year, the final trophy was awarded to the school which had the highest overall points. All students participating were integral in helping Clay City bring home the trophy again.

Notable teams placing 2nd in the events:

- Precision Ag Knowledge: Jack Edwards, Michael Tucker, Dalton Morgan
- Coding Challenge: Shawn Lucas, BJ Hunt, Gabriel Campbell
- Battery Design: Quinton Singer, Jayden Hickenbotham, Lilly Dewey
- Robo Challenge: Libby Zurcher, Cooper Osborne, Gracie Culler

1st Place finishes by Clay City in the following events:

- Nate Morris, Kyler Neal, Carson Williamson
- Forage Evaluation: Aiden Boyce, Jackson, Gage Cooksey
- Engineering Nightmare: Ethan Edwards, Alex Edwards, Brayden Wiram
- Power Tool Drag Race: Bryce Horton, Bryar Horton, Franca Junakovic

- Short Circuit: Jaxon Conder, Connor Tucker, Ben Bocking
- Quiz Bowl: Logan Stoelting, Colten Souder, Jack Michl, Luke Swearingen

The warm welcome back to the school was much appreciated. Congratulations to all the students!
