Exam Day Reminders

You MUST bring the following items to the exam:

- Photo identification
- Several sharpened No. 2 pencils (with erasers) for all multiple-choice answer sheets
- Pens with black or dark blue ink for completing free-response questions in most exams
- A calculator with the necessary capabilities if you're taking an AP Calculus or Statistics Exam. Visit http://www.collegeboard.com/student/testing/ap/exday\_cal.html to learn more about the calculator policy for each of these exams and for a list of authorized calculators.

You MAY bring the following items to the exam:

- Snacks for break, but they must be kept outside the exam room
- A watch (with no alarm or beeper) - the exam room will have an electronic clock
- Your social security number for identification purposes (optional). If you provide it, the number will appear on your AP Grade Reports.

NOT ALLOWED in the exam room:

- Cellular phones, pagers, MP3 players, iPods, or any personal digital assistants (PDAs)
- Books, compasses, colored pencils, correction fluid, dictionaries, highlighters, or notes
- Rulers and straightedges
- Scratch paper (notes can be made on portions of the exam booklets)
- Computers (except as noted for students with disabilities), or calculators (except as noted above)
- Watches that beep or have an alarm - these will be confiscated and your test will be made invalid
- Portable listening or recording devices (even with headphones) or photographic equipment
- Food or drink (in exam room)
- Clothing with subject-related information

You are required to arrive 30 minutes prior to your exam: 7:30 am for the morning administration. Students will not be dismissed until an exam has officially ended. Do not ask to leave early if you finish before the end of the test, as your request will be denied. If you play a sport or have a job, it will be your responsibility to inform your teachers, coach or employer of your AP obligation and arrangements should be made accordingly.

Get a good night's rest before your test, and eat a nutritious breakfast. You are allowed to bring a snack and beverage for your 10-minute break. However, eating is prohibited while you are taking an exam, and there is no food or beverage allowed in the exam room. It is advisable to bring a sweater or jacket, in case the room temperature is below your comfort level.

You are required to abide by the policies of both the College Board and Reynolds School District during the exam period. Any misconduct will be reported and could jeopardize your AP Exam grade. If you decide not to take an exam, please inform Mr. Klindt as soon as possible prior to the test administration.

Remember—No Refunds.

Be sure to review the Bulletin for AP Students and Parents that you will be receiving. If you have any additional questions or concerns, feel free to contact your AP Coordinator or teachers. Study Hard!
