

AP Exam Review Ideas

- 1) Use apcentral.collegeboard.com, read through free response questions for U.S. and Comparative, write outline responses to them and check the rubric for answers.
- 2) Use apcentral to review curriculum standards for U.S. and Comparative.
- 3) Take sample multiple choice tests from my collection of materials (1999 and 1994 exams.)
- 4) Use other AP Review materials from my collection. Borrow them and share them with other students taking the exam.
- 5) Review posted powerpoints on moodle from U.S. and Comparative.
- 6) Review powerpoint review assignments posted to moodle (in both AP "courses.") These are based on AP curriculum standards.
- 7) Review teacher websites that deal with AP exam review. Google other examples and share them.
- 8) Review court case database. Make real or powerpoint flashcards.
- 9) Review the various articles and forums to remind yourself about the events in the various countries we covered and consider how they fit into the AP exams.
