Staff Spotlight for April

Ms. Schoeppner - EC Teacher

How many years at Fairview? 30 years - my first teaching job!

Favorite sport/team to watch: Georgia Southern University football

Hometown: I was born in Mableton, Georgia and have lived in several places. I call Monroe, NC home because I have lived here the longest.

City you would like to visit: I would love to go out towards the west again to Jackson Hole, Sedona, the Grand Canyon and Utah. I would also like to travel to see more tropical places like Hawaii, Bora Bora or anywhere that has blue water.

College: Bachelor's degree in special education from Georgia Southern University and additional teaching certifications from UNC-Charlotte

Why did you become a teacher? I have always had a passion for helping others. I wanted to teach but didn't feel led to teach in the general classroom. Educating children that require additional support has always been my greatest desire.

Name of your favorite elementary school teacher: Mrs. Askew at Matthews Elementary - she inspired me to teach

Favorite thing to do when not at school: Spend time with my daughter, Mycala, my parents, and my dog, Humphrey

Most rewarding part of being a teacher: Getting to come to school everyday and work with my students, sometimes over a several year span watching them grow and knowing that I have played just a little part of that growth.

Silliest fact about you: My daughter says that it's the way I respond to people in a funny way. Her example is if someone says, "Oh, I found $20" and my response would be, "hot dog!" Students have even said that I make up words to describe things that makes them laugh. I also like to imitate people's actions.
