Textbook Assignment

Our coverage of AP United States curriculum in the classroom will be complimented by outlining a textbook. The textbook is The American Pageant—A History of the American People, 12th Edition. If there is no school on a designated due date, then the chapter(s) is due one the first school day following the no-school day.

The due dates will be put in the computer, for the year, and you can turn them in early if you chose.

Anyone planning to take the AP Exam should make every effort to have the ENTIRE textbook outlined by May 2 (this is one week prior to the Exam date)

Finishing the outlines earlier is even better

As you do your chapters, if you don't see the direct links for chapters 40, 41 and 42, then go to the pdf of the textbook itself to access those chapters.

As you read the chapters from your textbook, American Pageant: A History of the American People, make sure your notes contain the information emphasized in certain terms, concepts, statistics or peoples noted below. You will not be outlining your entire textbook. Rather, you will be extracting certain important information and include them in your notes. You will be expected to understand the relevance of the following ideas/concepts/statistics/peoples/terms and their place in both the progression of American history.

As you organize your binder, please set aside a section for only textbook notes; don't mix them up with your lecture notes. You are expected to hand-write your notes, which will be turned in weekly. Be sure to write what is relevant from the chapter (not online research; some topics appear in multiple chapters because the information is different)

READ THIS CHAPTER, but it is ok to not do the above questions. That's right...nothing to turn in

Why? (1) some material will overlap Government class, and (3) when I put together the years-worth of due dates, I accidently forgot this chapter, and the calendar just won't allow for it to be included.

You're welcome. 😊
