

Found Object Portraits

Found Objects Portraits is a slide presentation could be viewed in this pdf format or as a Google Slides Presentation.

Found Object Portraits

Take a good look at the objects around your home.

How many interesting shapes can you find?

How could you arrange these objects to make a picture?

How could you make a still life portrait by arranging objects found at home?

What other art forms can you make with found objects?

I can't wait to see your creative ideas! Draw your still life portrait and bring it to school. If you can photograph your arrangement you could send it to me at:

Designing with Objects

Giuseppe Arcimboldo

Bernard Williams

Giuseppe Arcimboldo's work has intrigued viewers for hundreds of years, especially the paintings that combined the art forms of still lifes and portraits.

Giuseppe Arcimboldo (April 5, 1526-July 11, 1593), was an Italian painter who lived and worked in Europe nearly five hundred years ago.

Giuseppe Arcimboldo (April 5, 1526-July 11, 1593), was an Italian painter who lived and worked in Europe nearly five hundred years ago.

Oftentimes the objects that he placed in his paintings related to a theme.

Giuseppe Arcimboldo's still life portraits were probably painted to get a reaction from his viewers. What do you think of his art?

Bernard Williams: Master of found objects

Bernard Williams is a Chicago artist who uses found objects to make art. Could you find ways to use trash items and objects from your home to make art too?
