ARGUMENTATIVE TEXT

A UNIT OF STUDY

Argumentative

These words are used to describe the characteristics of, overall meaning, and in the analysis of argumentative texts.

In an Argumentative text the author expresses their position and uses evidence to support their claims as for or against the topic.

I can use, apply, and connect academic vocabulary when listening, speaking, reading, writing, and thinking.

author's purpose

-why the author wrote the text

central idea

-what the text is mostly about; main idea

argument

-the position on a topic that is based on logic, reasoning, and research

fact

-something that can be verified as true with data, observations, and reliable sources

position

-the author's stance on a topic or issue

topic

-the subject of the text

audience

-the reader of the text

claim

- statement made by the author based on the facts that have been gathered to support an argument
