

BMHS Students Win Art Awards

Recently Alexis Bell, Em Johns, Isiac Pulliam, Makayla Loyd, Duncan Woody all earned awards at the recent Scholastic Art Awards Competition. In fact, this Saturday, February 9, at 1:00pm in the Milwaukee Art Museum, Isiac Pulliam, Alexis Bell and Makayla Loyd will be honored and their art work will hang in the museum for six weeks. It's a real honor and extremely difficult to have this opportunity to display student art work in a prestigious facility like the Milwaukee Art Museum.

Isaac Pulliam received two gold keys, one silver and an honorary award while, Alexis Bell and Makayla Loyd each earned a silver key award. There were over 3000 entries from throughout the state and only ten percent of these entries are accepted into the show. Congratulations to these students for their outstanding accomplishments.

Also of Note: Kassumy Montiel-Reyes won first prize in the local Congressional Art Show for Wisconsin Representative Mark Pocan from the Madison area. Her work is on display in the Cannon Tunnel, which connects the Cannon House Office Building with the U.S. Capitol in Washington, DC.

Finally, The Beloit Memorial High School's Art Club is hosting a BWW fundraiser on Wednesday, February 13th from 10:00 AM to 10:00 PM (Eat at the Buffalo Wild Wings on Milwaukee Road and tell your server you are there for art club). Ten percent of all funds raised are going to support our travelers that are headed to London, Paris, Barcelona and Madrid in the Summer of 2019.
