

When you're new at art and you can't do perspective

art_relates

I found this under our son's mattress.

Wayno®
© 2.16.15

Kloet: "Be careful with the superglue."

Students:

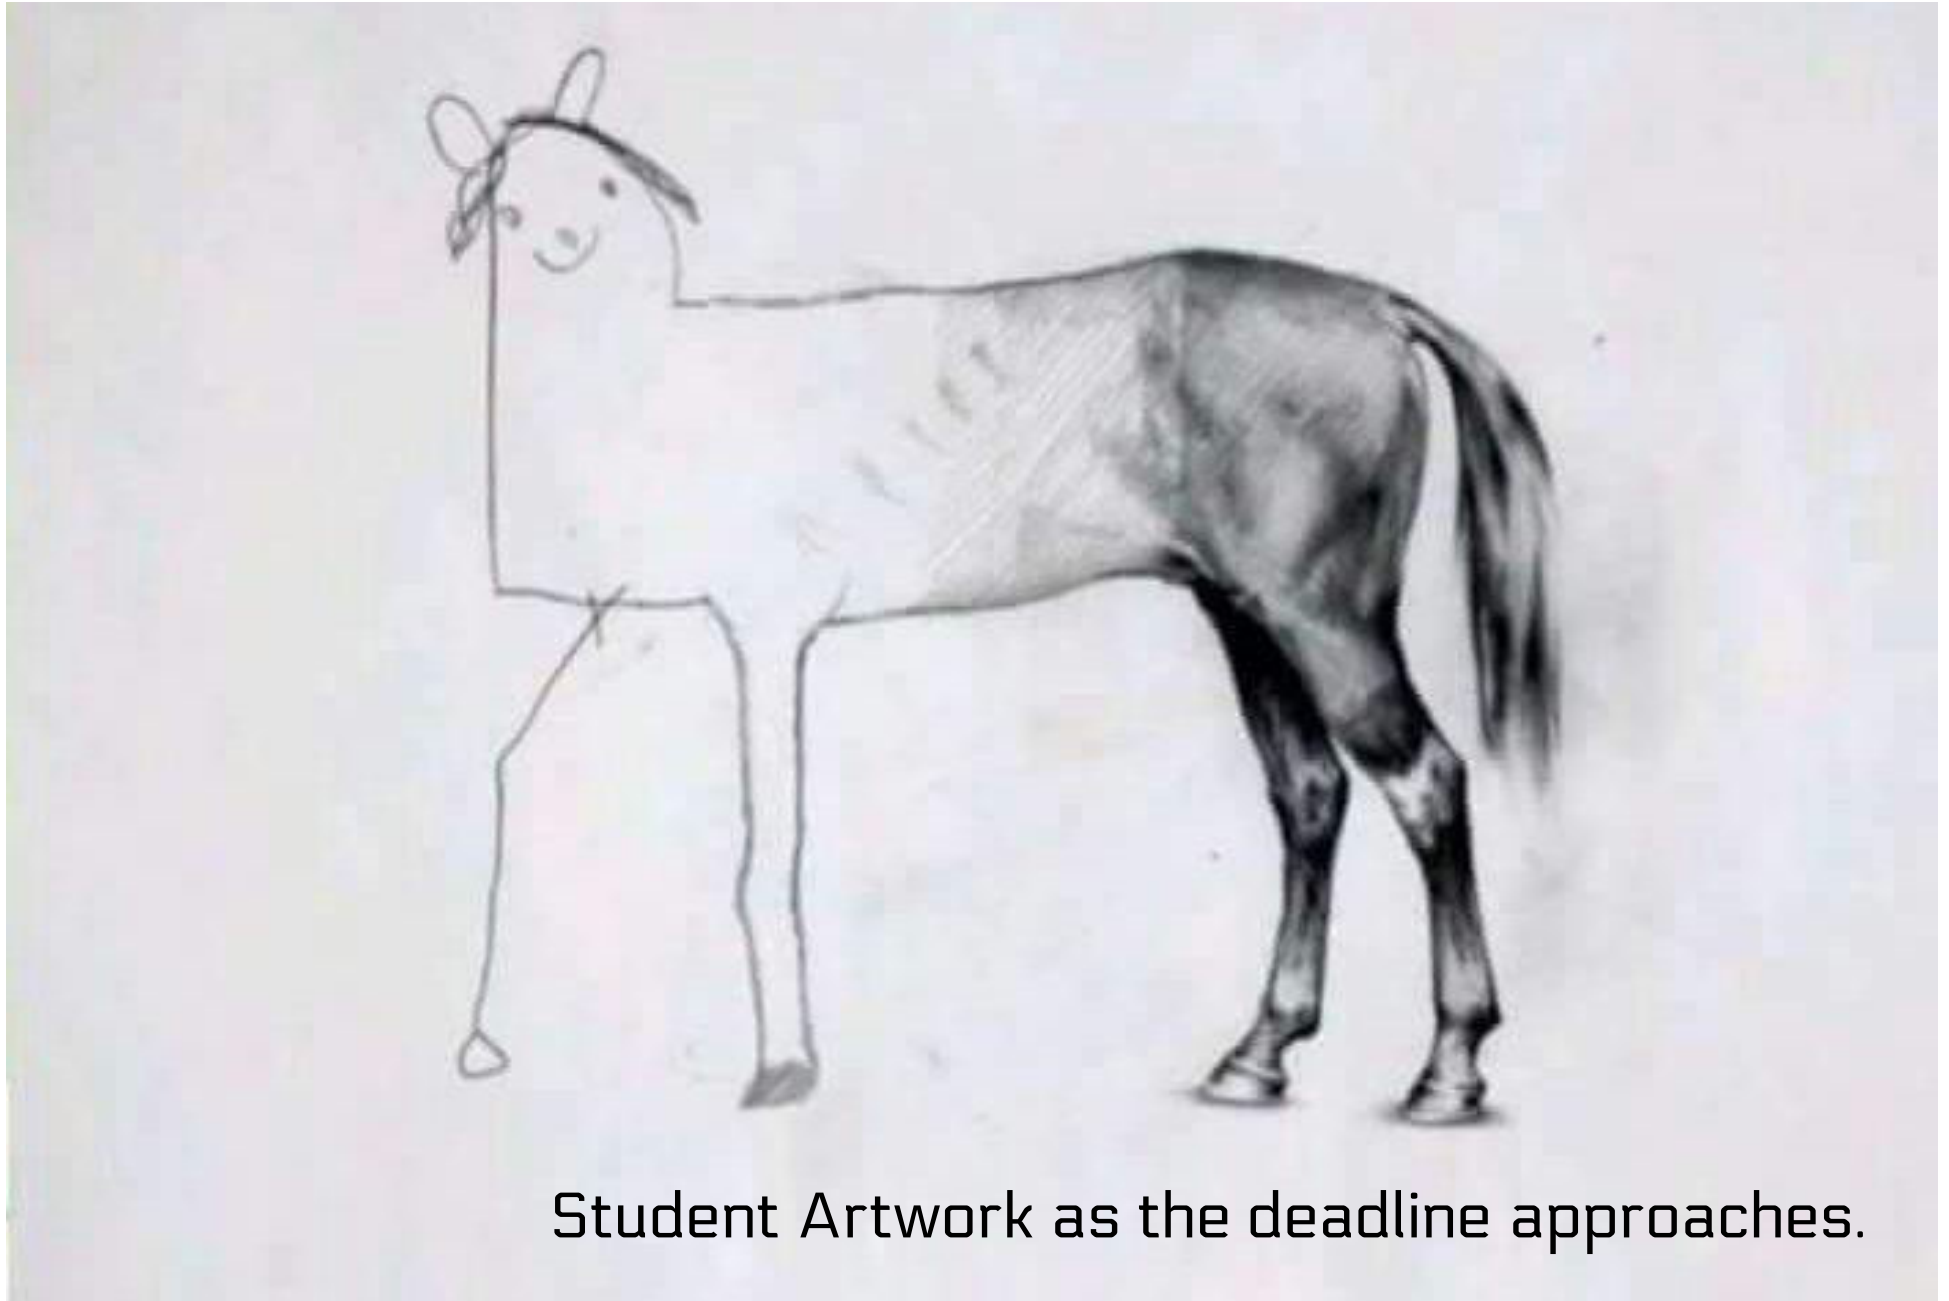

WHO DOESN'T CLOSE THE GLUE CAPS?

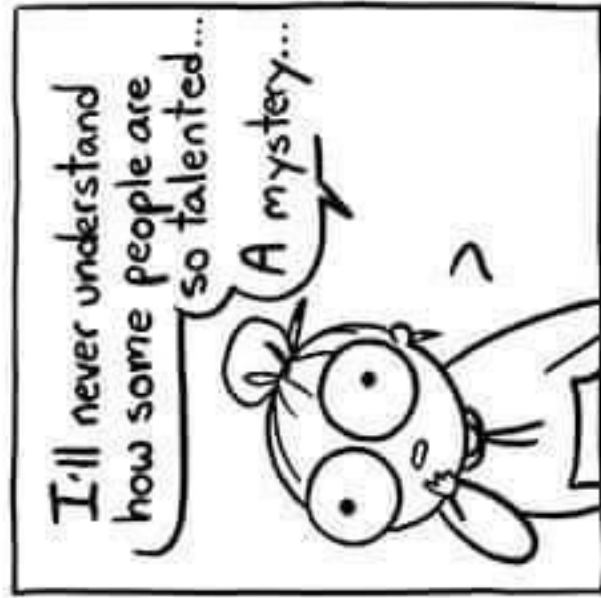

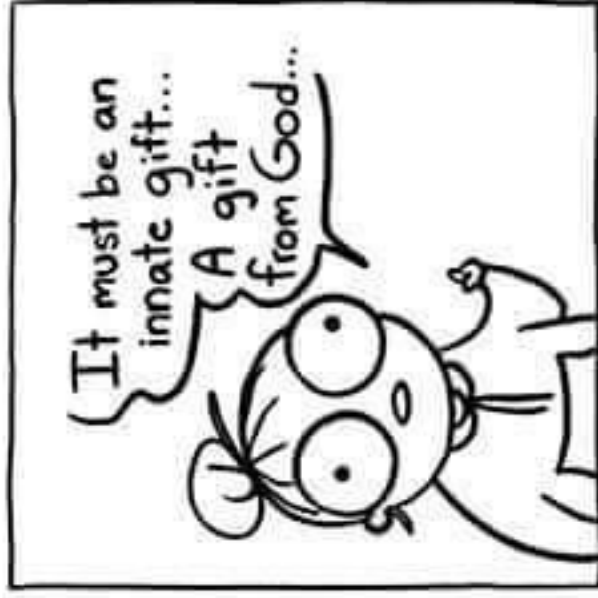

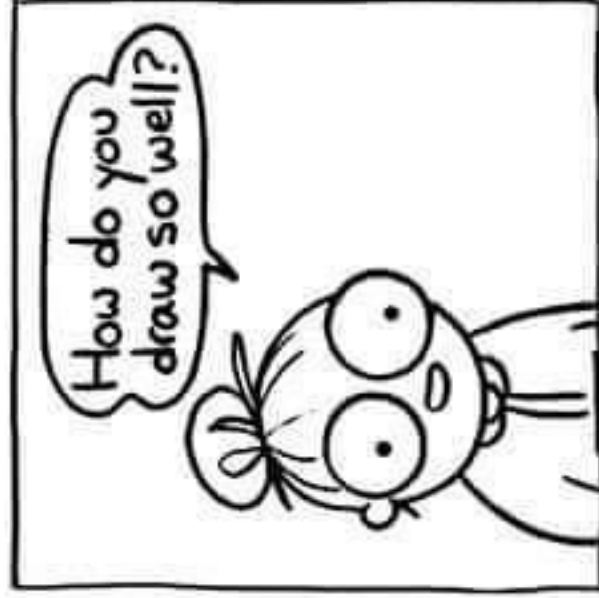

HONESTLY?

I DON'T ALWAYS CARE ABOUT MY GRADE...

BUT WHEN I DO IT'S THE END OF
THE SEMESTER AND EVEN THOUGH I DIDN'T DO ALL THE
ASSIGNMENTS, I'LL ASK FOR EXTRA CREDIT NOW.

Student Artwork as the deadline approaches.

But I handed
my assignment in!

It was due 3 years ago...

THAT LOOK THE ART TEACHER GIVES YOU

WHEN YOU PULL ARTWORK
FROM YOUR BACKPACK THAT HAS A BIG FOLD IN IT

WHEN KLOET JUST FINISHED EXPLAINING THE INSTRUCTIONS A THIRD TIME AND A STUDENT ASKS, "WHAT ARE WE DOING?"

I WASHED MY BRUSHES AND

PUT THEM AWAY BRISTLES FACING UP!

Mrs. Kloet decorating her classroom.

When you just finished explaining the instructions a 3rd time and one of your students asks: "What are we doing?"

NO, I UNDERSTAND

YOU THOUGHT I SAID COLOUR
IN "MARKER" BECAUSE MARKER
SOUNDS LIKE "PENCIL CRAYON"

When the sign in the museum says
"Do not touch"

Omg is any of that even gluten free? You do realize bread is bad for you right?

It's the 17th century Greg...

ON A SCALE OF ART HOW DO YOU FEEL TODAY?

Me thinking of the character in my head:

When I try to draw
it from memory:

IF AT LEAST ONE PERSON
LIKES YOUR ART, CONSIDER THAT PIECE OF ART A SUCCESS
(EVEN IF THAT ONE PERSON IS YOU).

