

THE ORIGINAL GRUMPY CAT?

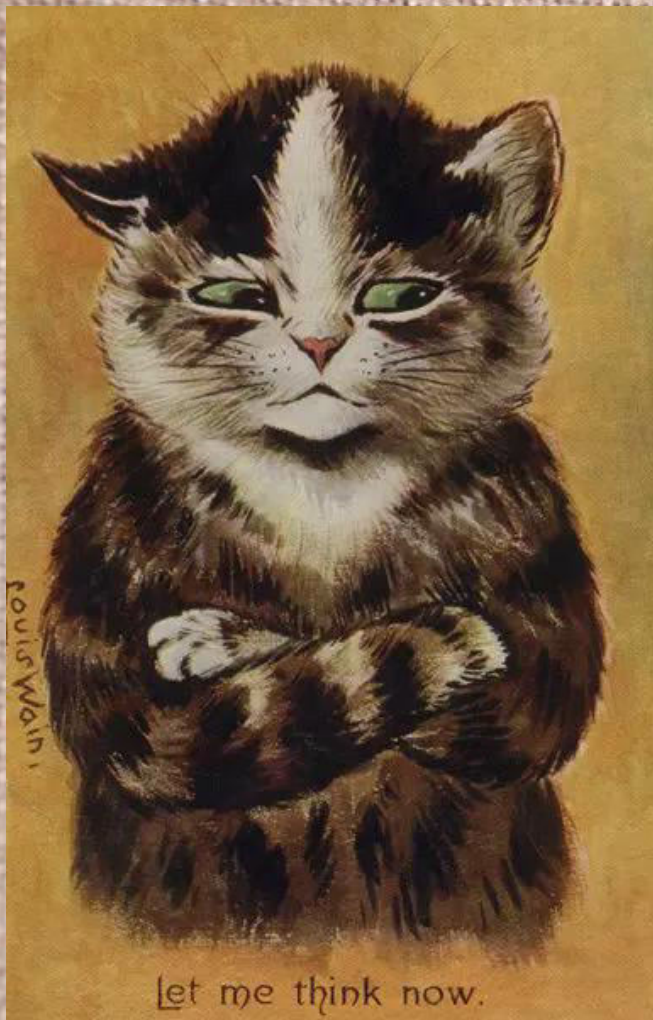

Art History Memes

Louis Wain was an artist and illustrator who lived in turn of the century Victorian England. And he loved cats. Cats were the subject of all of his artworks.

I fell in love with a lovely Kitten, & that Kitten was myself.

Wain's painting and drawings of anthropomorphic (having human traits) cats with captions and phrases were very popular at the time. Could Wain have been the first artist to ever make a MEME?

What inspired you to write the essay, Francis?
