

How to Become a STEM Research Expert?

- attend ASRT this August!

Nationally recognized workshop (only 10 / year)

- 1st time hosted in Michigan!
- August 12 - 13: Sloan Museum - Flint
- August 14- 15: Bosch - Farmington Hills
- Hosted by the Flint Regional Science & Engineering Fair

What is ASRT? (Advancing STEM Research Teaching)

ASRT is a free 4 day professional development workshop for STEM Research Teachers,

- guides to support teachers providing STEM research opportunities for students
- curriculum activities
- 20 SCECHs!

1

Sign up for the ASRT workshop.
No charge and food included.

2

Attend the workshop (all 4 days)
9 AM - 3 PM
August 12-13: Flint
August 14-15: Farmington Hills

3

Learn how to connect your students with mentors.

4

Learn how to build a program and gain support within your school for STEM Research.

5

Discover opportunities for your students to showcase their research.

6

Uncover the secrets to award winning posters,
papers and presentations.

7

Find new opportunities to build community outreach.

8

Celebrate all of your newfound knowledge and 20 SCECHs!

Sign up via QR code or at www.FlintScienceFair.org

ASRTProgram.com

FlintScienceFair.org

