

Charlotte's Web
Book Report
By Ava Cipollono

Summary

In the beginning of Charlotte's Web there was a girl named Fern. She woke up one night because her pig had babies. Fern's dad saw a runt so he was going to kill it. Fern got mad so her dad gave the pig to Fern. Fern named the pig Wilber. One day Fern took Wilber to school, and got in trouble. A few days later Wilber had to be sold to Fern's uncle's barn. That night something spoke. Wilber had to find it and it spoke again "Salutations!" I am a spider. My name is Charlotte. She said. But sadly Charlotte died and had babies. One sunny morning the eggs hatched but a lot of them flew away so Wilber had 3 spider friends, Joy, Aranea, and Nellie.

Opinion/Recommendation

I thought Charlotte's Web was fantastic and I think you would like it so much! I love it because it made me laugh. I thought I wouldn't like it but I was wrong. I saw the movie too. Did you know there is another movie but it was a cartoon so it wasn't as cool. It was really funny when Wilbur woke up one morning to try to find the thing that spoke to him that night. He went crazy because he wanted a friend. Finally Wilber found her it was a spider. She was very smart. But one day Charlotte had eggs but she died. One morning the eggs hatched but only 3 of them stayed. I think you will like this book.
