

CRITIQUE OF ABSTRACT: THE ART OF DESIGN (PLATON)

We will be critiquing the short feature about the photographer Platon.

What are your first thoughts after watching this film? What did you enjoy about this film and why?

Platon specializes in portrait photography. Which photograph of his did you like the most and why? You can look at some of the photographs on his website too.

Platon spends quite a bit of time taking photographs of former U.S. Secretary of State, Colin Powell. There are some interesting interactions that take place between them. Describe one strategy that Platon uses to get the best photograph of Powell?

Do you think that you could be a portrait photographer like Platon? Why or why not?