

Charlotte's Web
Book Report
By
Kyle Goldstein

Summary

There was a girl name Fern who loved a pig. She named him Wilbur. When he was 5 months old they agreed to sell him to her uncle, Mr. Zuckerman. She would visit him every day. At Mr. Zuckerman's farm Wilbur met a large gray spider named Charlotte. They became the best of friends. He met lots of animals too. Wilbur found out he was going to die eventually. So Charlotte promises to keep him alive and it worked every one thought Wilbur was special. So they went to the fair. Wilbur won 1st place! Sadly Charlotte died. So Wilbur took her egg sack in his mouth all the way back too the farm and spiders were born.

Opinion/Recommendation

Charlotte's Web was just ok. It was just ok because it didn't really interest me. I didn't really want to read it ether, and the only part that I thought was funny was when Lervy through a bucket of water on Mr. Zuckerman and Avery. It would have been more interesting if I didn't already know what happened.
