

Brain Exercises on the Web

Go to www.braincurls.com and try the following brain exercises:

Word Power Ball

Time Arrows

Dollar-taire

What's the Difference?

React!

Geography Jigsaw (choose one)

Part A. Table of Answers

Make a table showing your answers to each of the following questions for each exercise in a word document. (Hint: you may want to create your table using the landscape format for your paper.)

1. In what subject area would this exercise be useful?
2. In what grade level could this exercise be used?
3. How could this exercise be used in the classroom?
4. What skill would this exercise help build?
5. How would you rank this exercise on a scale of 0-5 with 0=not useful and not fun to 5 =very useful and extremely fun?

Part B. Choose One

Choose any of the exercises not already on the list, write its name, and explain why you chose it. Include answers to the questions above for the exercise you chose and add them to the chart.

Your final chart should have eight (8) columns and six (6) rows including a row that has the names of the puzzles and a column with the answers to: the subject area, grade level, classroom use, skill builder, and rank.
