The Last
Invisible Boy

GENRE

The genre in this book is fiction because no one can change into being invisible.

SETTING

The first setting in my book The Last Invisible Boy, is when Finn the main character, is turning invisible!

SUMMARY

Finn Garret is disappearing! Now this poor little boy is becoming a ghost. One summer day when a giant eraser fell from the sky it flattened Finn! The eraser quickly got to work. That big bad eraser has been erasing him from the world ever since. Well do you want the truth? No gigantic eraser fell out of the sky. That was just a dumb metaphor. I began disappearing this past June, right after the day I call The Terrible Day That Changed Everything. Sadly that was the day Finn's Dad past a way. One day he looked at the mirror and his black hair was now a milky white. Also his skin was missing some pinkness. Nearly half of his hair has freakishly gone white and his skin is as pale as a ghost's! This book has so much more secrets but I can't tell you, you need to read this whole book to find out. Don't stop reading on the 2nd to last page there is way more on the last page!

RECOMMENDATION

I chose The Last Invisible Boy because it has so many secrets!
