

Students in 2nd - 5th grade, you are invited to be part of a

Celebration of Reading

When: Wednesday, March 27, 2019

6:00 - 7:00 PM

Where: SRAE Library

Purpose: to promote a love for books among students, parents, and faculty at SRAE and to share a favorite book with others

How it Works:

1. Complete and return the permission slip on back.
2. Read a book/novel...historical fiction, biography etc.
3. Prepare a mini-project to show off your novel.

Ideas are:

- *poster
- *large cardboard tri-fold
- *pizza box display
- *shoebox diorama
- *mobile
- *graphic arts/comic strip
- *book jacket
- *paper grocery bag filled with items related to the book
- *perform a skit
- *video of your skit
- *power point presentation with slides

It is up to you and your parents!

4. Include the following on your project: *book title *author *book genre *author's purpose; if fiction include *setting *main characters *plot summary *theme; if nonfiction summarize what you found most interesting; if biography show some kind of timeline of events. Also tell why you liked the book.
5. Bring your completed project and copy of your book to school by Tuesday, March 26. Deliver it to Mrs. Cessar's room 310. We will set it up in the library right after school.
6. Students will tour the display and vote for the best projects.
7. Attend the celebration on Wednesday, March 27 at 6:00 with your family. Winners will be announced and prizes awarded - one prize per grade and one overall teacher's choice award.
8. Questions: contact Mrs. Cessar rm. 310 x4310

Cut and return slip to Mrs. Cessar room 310 by March 18, 2019.
