

BUSINES LAW - Chapter 4 Review!!!!

Law of Torts

- 1) What is the general difference between a tort and a crime?
- 2) The law of torts is a concept of _____ simply because people are entitled to these as a member of our society.
- 3) A person who commits a tort.
- 4) An intentional tort occurs when a person knows or desires the _____ of his or her action.
- 5) What is one difference between the tort of assault and crime of assault?
- 6) The wrongful injury or interference with the property of another.
- 7) What is "real property?"
- 8) A nuisance is the interference with the enjoyment of _____.
- 9) What is the difference between a public and private nuisance?
- 10) False statement or deceptive practice done with the intent to injure the other.
- 11) Making an arrest without having probable cause or a warrant to arrest someone.
- 12) Wrongful act of injuring another's reputation by making false statements.
- 13) What are the 2 categories of defamation?
- 14) What kind of speech is "protected" against a defamation lawsuit?
- 15) What do persons in the public limelight have to prove for a defamation lawsuit?
- 16) The unauthorized taking or borrowing of personal property of another for the use of the taker.
- 17) What kind of defamation is made orally to a third party?
- 18) Interference with person's rights to be left alone.
- 19) This federal act provides safeguards against the invasion of privacy by agencies of the government.
- 20) Unintentional torts LACK _____.
- 21) The failure to exercise the degree of care that a reasonable person would have exercised in the same circumstance.

22) What does “duty of care” refer to?

23) What is “breach of duty?”

24) What is proximate cause?

25) Describe actual harm.

26) Knowing of the risk involved with an activity and still took the chance.

27) Applies to ultrahazardous activities where no amount of care will eliminate some risk.

28) This preserves the rights of third parties affected by the death of a person caused by negligence.

29) Who are wrongful death suits usually limited to?

30) If money will not repay the injured party, what else can be done for a remedy?