

Chapter 4 Study Guide

Niagara Falls is located between _____ and _____.	Lake Erie and Lake Ontario
Niagara Fall does NOT make _____.	the autumn leaves turn colors
Hydropower plants on the Niagara River produce _____.	hydroelectricity
The _____ are NOT part of the Appalachian Mountains	Rocky Mountains _____ doesn't share a border with the Atlantic Ocean.	Pennsylvania

Chapter 4 Study Guide

Grapes grow well in the Finger Lakes region because there is _____.	warm air surrounding the Finger Lakes.
The largest Finger Lake is _____.	Lake Seneca
Water is NOT essential to the growth of cranberry plants that are placed _____.	600 feet deep in the Finger Lakes.
Sap is NOT ready to flow when _____.	temperatures drop below freezing.
It takes a long time to make maple syrup because _____.	40 gallons of sap are need to make a gallon of maple syrup

Chapter 4 Study Guide

People in the Chesapeake Bay make money by _____.	harvesting the sea
_____ are people who fish the Chesapeake Bay.	Watermen
Soil around Chesapeake Bay gets polluted when _____.	factories dump waste onto the land
Polluted soil gets into Chesapeake when _____.	rain and snow wash the soil into the rives that drain into the bay
People have tried to help Chesapeake Bay by creating a _____.	foundation to educate people about the environment

Essay Questions

Name 3 ways that the Niagara River is important to the people in the Northeast Region.	<ul style="list-style-type: none">-people use hydropower to run mills and machines-largest producer of electricity in New York-many tourists visit it
How are the Green Mountains and White Mountains alike and different?	Alike <ul style="list-style-type: none">-both part of Appalachians Mountain-get heavy snowfall-many ski resorts Different Green Mts. named for evergreen forests and White Mountains named for snow-covered peaks
List the steps in order of how to prepare a cranberry bog.	Swampy land is leveled and cleared and then covered with sand. New cranberry plants are then pressed into the sand in the bogs.