

Chavis Cook works with the Seminole High School Warhawk Band from Seminole, FL. Chavis Cook holds a Bachelor of Music Education from Anderson University. Currently in his seventh year with the band, Chavis Cook served as the Guard Director (2012), and flag choreographer/technician (2006-2011).

During his time with the program the Seminole Winter Guard earned a bronze medal in Scholastic Open class and placed World Class finals for 6 consecutive years at WGI. He is currently a choreographer for Spirit of Atlanta Drum Corps. Chavis' marching experiences include: The Cavaliers Drum Corps (2002), Infiniti Winter Guard (1999-2003), and Nolan Winter Guard (2002)

Chavis Cook has worked with students at various levels of the music education system. He began his career in 2005 as Assistant Director of Bands/Color Guard Director at Dorman High School in Roebuck, SC where his guards placed at WGI regionals. In 2006, Chavis Cook moved to Florida where he taught elementary music in Pinellas County. Chavis currently teaches choir at Seminole Middle School. His choirs consistently earn superior rating at Florida Vocal Association's Music Performance Assessments. Chavis is also an active clinician with Marching Auxiliaries based out of Plano, TX.