

Official Template- Use this format only

Your Name

Check up #1- Title, Introduction, Background Research, Resources

1.Title- The Chemistry of ---

2.Introduction

Include the following in paragraph form:

- Explain your ...
- Explain why you chose your ...
- How is your life affected by your ...

3.Background Research

In this section you will research the 'science' involved in or relating to your ...

How is it made? Where is it made? How does it work? Etc.

Resources

Include ALL resources you use throughout this project (and I mean ALL of them). So, if you are researching what the molecular composition of "Little Tree Air Fresheners" and you find some information that may be useful to your project, copy the url and paste it into this section; also write a brief description of the source and what information was useful on the page.

For example:<http://www.little-trees.com/us/>

- Little Trees Air Freshener official company website
- Information about products they sell
- Company background information
- Citing Your Work: <http://owl.english.purdue.edu/> This is an very helpful website for citing all of your sources and information!