KIM Kardashian shows off her fuller curves in a figure-hugging dress as she celebrates her 32nd birthday with boyfriend Kanye West.

The pair were seen walking through romantic Venice with their arms linked as they spent the day stopping to take in the sights and snap photos on an SLR camera.

Kim - who has admitted to gaining weight since getting together with the rapper - wore a tight brown lycra frock that enhanced her growing cleavage, teamed with a long black coat and peep-toe ankle boots. She looked like a true tourist with her camera hanging from her shoulder as she chatted to Kanye, 35, who added a smart touch to his leather-look jeans with a black shirt and blazer.

Earlier in the week Kim and Kanye visited Rome on the birthday trip. It came after Kim admitted she dreaded getting older.

Talking to E! Kim said: "I'm not so into a 32nd birthday. Doesn't do it for me, so I don't really care." And it seems there is much speculation that Kanye is going to pop the question to Kim on the trip.

A source told Radar Online: "It's only a matter of time before Kanye pops the question.

"They are madly in love with one another and as far as Kanye is concerned he wants to spend the rest of his life with Kim."
