

Character Development Interview Activity

Your Name: _____

Pretend you are a character from your imagination. Write the character's answers to the interview questions below. This will help you understand and develop the backstory for your character. It's ok to skip questions or go out of order.

How old are you? _____

When and where are you from? _____

What kind of things do you like? _____

How did you get where you are now? _____

What is the best and worst thing that ever happened to you? _____

What are your strengths? _____

What are your weaknesses? _____

Character Development Interview Activity

What makes you unique? _____

What is important to you? (or) What motivates you? _____

Who are your friends or who is close to you? _____

What do you dislike? (or) Who don't you get along with? _____

What are your hopes and dreams? (or) What makes you happy? _____

What are you afraid of? _____

Do you have a secret? _____

Is there anything else you want me to know? _____

What is your name: _____
