

Art Choice Board - Week of May 4 - May 8, 2020

Cinco de Mayo is Tuesday, May 5th!

This week, we celebrate visual arts created by Mexican artists!

Do as many of these art projects as you wish!

Share your results by posting pictures in the Art Google Classroom for your homeroom.

Mexican Artist, Olga Costa, created this oil painting called Resurreccion (1988-89). Costa was born on August 28, 1913 in Leipzig, Germany, and died on June 28, 1993 in Guanajuato, Mexico.

Draw, paint, or make a collage of a vase of brightly colored flowers.

Papel Picado means "punched paper" in Spanish. Children are taught how to make these at a very young age. There are many different ways to make these! I made a quick video showing you a basic way to create your own. <https://youtu.be/KNyGW3Abr0U>

Enjoy!

Here is a link to written directions:
NMMAPapelPicado.pdf

Title: Tamalada
Artist: Carmen Lomas Garza
Date: 1990

Mexican-American artist, Carmen Lomas Garza was known for creating paintings celebrating time spent with family and friends. How can you show a memory of time spent with family or friends? Maybe you could take a photograph or make a collage?

Title: The Watermelons
Artist: Diego Rivera
Date: 1957
Museum Dolores Olmedo Patiño

Famous Mexican artist, Diego Rivera was known for his murals showing people at work. This painting is all about watermelon. What is your favorite kind of fruit? How about drawing a picture or taking a photograph of fruits you love!