

MS. RUND'S CLASS CONTRACT

- I may have my cell phone on me, but it must be turned off. After one warning, it goes to the dean.
- If I am absent, I will be responsible to see what work I missed and catch up in a timely manner.
- I will read for 30 minutes every week and keep a reading log of what I've read, for how long every time.
- I will purchase one Starbucks gift card for the teacher every trimester.
- I will come to school prepared for class discussions. This means I'll read what I'm assigned and finish any work I couldn't in class.
- I can borrow a pencil from Ms. Rund but I must leave one belonging of mine to be held hostage until pencil is returned.
- I will sharpen any pencil during work time only-not while the teacher is talking.
- If Ms. Rund or another scholar is talking, I will be quiet and listen. The same respect will be upheld for me when I'm talking.
