

Winchester Public Schools,
Winchester, Virginia Position Vacancy
Head Football Coach,
John Handley High School
Start Date: Between April 1 & July 1, 2018

Winchester Public Schools seeks an experienced, dynamic educator with outstanding professional and interpersonal skills to lead the football team at John Handley High School, a privately endowed, diverse public high school of approximately 1,250 students. This leader will inspire a culture of excellence on and off the field for this historic, iconic high school, with a rich heritage of teaching and learning for over 90 years. With State Championships in 1984 and 1994, there is a very proud history in the football program at Handley High School. The last 16 seasons have resulted in 101 wins, making the playoffs 10 times, 5 district championships, 3 region championships and 3 state semi-final appearances. With some of the best facilities in the country, we are primed for success in the future.

Qualifications:

The preferred applicant should hold, or be eligible for, a Virginia teaching license, making them qualified for a full-time teaching job within Winchester Public Schools, and possess a minimum of five years of successful coaching experience at the varsity level. The position requires excellent personal and professional characteristics; dynamic and proven leadership in a football program; ability to work effectively with school personnel, players, parents and members of the community; superior motivation and speaking skills; strong instructional knowledge of football, demonstrated leadership in the total management of a football program; and mastery of team development to achieve results and develop student-athletes.

Location:

Winchester Public Schools is comprised of one high school, one middle school, and four elementary schools serving over 4,300 students. Winchester is situated in the picturesque Shenandoah Valley of Virginia, 65 miles northwest of Washington, D.C. Its location, rich history, and diverse economic base make it an attractive community in which to live and coach.

Salary: Coaching and weightlifting stipends commensurate with experience.

Application:

Apply by visiting our website at

<https://winchesterva.tedk12.com/hire/index.aspx>

Interviews to start late March/early April 2018.

