

Career and College Links

www.careercruising.com

Free site for students to research careers, colleges, technical schools, military careers, scholarships, financial aid, resumes, interest assessments, job interview skills and more. Username is typically WSD-actual student number, password is just the student number. Please see person in charge of Career Cruising at each school if problems are encountered trying to log into Career Cruising.

<http://nces.ed.gov/collegenavigator>

National Center for Education Statistics extensive site to research careers, colleges and financial aid.

www.bls.gov/ooh/

Bureau of Labor Statistics Occupational Outlook Handbook online to research careers, especially those identified as in high demand.

www.naceweb.org

National Association of Colleges and Employers listing of starting salaries for new college graduates. Compiled from data provided by participating colleges and universities that collected the information from their graduates. The report is called NACE Salary Survey.

<http://michigancollegetour.com>

Guide to Michigan colleges, universities and community colleges.

www.michigan.gov/mistudentaid

To explore options to help pay for college including various kinds of financial aid such as federal, state, institutional, and private funds used to assist eligible students.