

Congratulations!! You're going to be parents. Now you will need to create a child rearing contract. In this contract you are to address the following scenarios:

Scenario # 1

You and your spouse have decided to have a natural child which results in twins a boy and a girl.

Scenario # 2

You and your spouse have decided to adopt a set of foster children. Two boys aged 11 and 3, a girl aged

Scenario # 3

You and your spouse decided to foster a child, girl aged 8. After fostering for a year you decided to adopt.

You and your spouse will need to create a child rearing contract. The following need to be address:

- 1). Religion- what religion will your children be raised in. You must include the religion and how you all will practice it.
- 2). Education- You and your spouse will need to decide if you will home school, public school, or private school your children. If you choose home school, you will need to provide the program you will be using. If you choose private schooling, you will need to research and provide information for that private school.
- 3). Discipline- How will you children be disciplined. Will you use corporal punishment, time out, or another alternative form of discipline?
