

Mrs. Baker

Student: _____

Grade: _____

Rubric: Cooking

Cooking Compounds
	Excellent 4 pts	Good 3 pts	Fair 2 pts	Poor 1 pts
Pictures	Excellent Pictures of each step and the final product are included and easily identified.	Good Most pictures of each step and the final product are included and easily identified.	Fair Few pictures of each step are included and/or missing the final product.	Poor No pictures are included.
Explanation	Excellent Clearly explains how mixtures and the final product are different.	Good Explains how mixtures and final product is different but knowledge is not clearly explained.	Fair Explains how mixtures and final product is different but knowledge is confusing.	Poor Missing explanation.
Mechanics	Excellent Punctuation and capitalization is used correctly.	Good Punctuation and capitalization is used correctly most of the time.	Fair Punctuation and capitalization is used correctly some of the time.	Poor Punctuation and capitalization is missing in most sentences.
Labels	Excellent All items of importance on the poster are clearly labeled with labels that can be read from at least 3 ft. away.	Good Almost all items of importance on the poster are clearly labeled with labels that can be read from at least 3 ft. away.	Fair Several items of importance on the poster are clearly labeled with labels that can be read from at least 3 ft. away.	Poor Labels are too small to view OR no important items were labeled.
Grammar	Excellent There are no grammatical mistakes on the poster.	Good There is 1 grammatical mistake on the poster.	Fair There is 2-3 grammatical mistakes on the poster.	Poor There is more than 3 grammatical mistakes on the poster.
Cooking	Excellent You participated in some way with the cooking process.	Good n/a	Fair n/a	Poor You did not participate in the cooking process.

Comments:
