

Name: _____

Hierarchy of Genre Paintings

For all 2 word answers: Include the space (or dash) when writing it in the boxes for it to fit.

Created on TheTeachersCorner.net Crossword Maker

lower-classes	people	six	two	still life	history	Frans Snyders	England	racehorses
man made	eighteenth century	nineteenth century	landscape	Rome	middle-classes
genre	romanticized	churches	animal painter	portrait	decorative	topographical allegorical	mythological	freedom	subject	wide	three	eastern	popular

Across

1. This depicts a moment in a narrative story.
6. Who founded Animal Painting as a genre.
7. What other form of art were genre works produced on?
10. How many hierarchies of genre works are there?
11. Genre works were one of the most _____ of the hierarchies.
12. Still life's started in what county in the middle ages?
19. After what time frame does the term no longer apply to works that still meet the basic definition?
20. History painting contain a large number of what?
22. Landscapes are set in what type of view?
24. This view is a landscape where the purpose is to depict an actual, specific place.
25. This is a depiction of the visual appearance of the subject.
27. What did animal painters start to paint that earned them more money and respect?
28. Who else besides the rich and powerful could afford to commission portraits?
29. This type of still life object is not found in nature.

Down

2. Still life objects are categorized into how many groups?
3. This artist specializes in the portrayal of animals.
4. Still life gives the artist the most what?
5. When portrait art opened as a genre, who else desired portraits?
8. This division of landscape art uses dull colors and muted details.
9. When did animal painters start to earn respect?
10. This is a work of art showing mostly inanimate subject matter.
13. What is it called when an artist combines their imagination with realistic imagery?
14. History art works are defined by their _____ rather than the artistic style.
15. Where were animal painters not looked down upon?
16. What do you call history scenes that we know really happened but no one can confirm or deny if the artist depicted it accurately?
17. Genre works were the first to depict the average life of who?
18. This type of art work is considered a history painting because it tells a narrative.
21. This is the depiction of natural scenery.
23. Landscape art has how many distinct characteristics/elements?
26. This is the representation of scenes from everyday life.