HISTORY WAX MUSEUM

On Friday, students in Ms. Pruneau's 4th grade class hosted a wonderful event for other classes. Each student researched a historical figure, created a display and dressed up as the wax figure of that person. The students put so much work into their displays and costumes and the other students enjoyed visiting the museum.

The Maple Avenue PFT is excited to announce an opportunity for our students:

Student Activity Grant Application 2023-2024

Four (One per grade)- $250 Scholarship Grants will be awarded for students to participate in a NEW experience.

Applications that do not meet criteria will not be considered for the scholarship.

Questions and completed applications can be sent to: MapleAvenuePFT@gmail.com.

Deadline for applications is February 23, 2024.

Maple Avenue PFT Executive Board

Criteria for Participation

- The activity must be a new experience for the student that he/she has always wanted to participate in including sports team, camp, art class, instrument lesson etc.
- A teacher recommendation MUST be included with the application. The recommendation should be a character reference that includes the teacher describing who the child is as a person and why they should receive the grant.
- Applications MUST be submitted to the PFT by Friday, February 23, 2024, at mapleavenuepft@gmail.com. Students can also hand their application to their classroom teacher who can place it in the PFT mailbox prior to the deadline. Final collection from the school will take place mid-morning of February 23, 2024.
- Must cost $250 or more to qualify. Can be used for multiple months/sessions for activity of choice.
- Winners will be chosen by the Maple Avenue PFT Executive Board and announced at the March PFT Meeting on Thursday, March 14 at 7pm via Zoom.
- One winner per grade will be chosen, however the PFT Executive Board will choose a second recipient in another grade if applications from every grade are not received.
- Programs that students are applying for must take place within the 2023-2024 school year/or the following Summer Vacation and must be used prior to the beginning of the 2024-2025 school year.
- Money will be sent directly to the activity of the student's choice. The PFT cannot send the money to the parents. Our Treasurer will be in touch with the winner's adults to finalize payments and arrangements.

Deadline for application is February 23, 2024
