Process Art Experience

On Thursday, June 13th, students in 3rd grade will be participating in a "process art" workshop in the art room. The students will be creating art using unconventional tools and paint. This should be a lot of fun for the children!

Although we will try to keep the mess to a minimum, it is possible that paint may get on the children's clothing. It is tempera paint, so it is washable, but we cannot guarantee it won't leave a stain on all materials. Dress to make a mess!

Students will be provided with safety goggles, rubber gloves, and will be removing their shoes. You are welcome to send an apron or large T-shirt for your child to put over their clothes during the activity if you would like.

~Mrs. Gray and Mr. Landano
